

SONG: RENEWABLES

GUY (as SMYRNA)

In the dark of the darkest night
When the moon is dead
When you dream of light

In the leftovers of primordial ooze
A thing is lurking there
Something is slurping there

Growing there
From waste and litter
Dead, decaying life
From filth and war and strife

Fission and fusion
Reality and illusion
All things dank and dark
And bright and beautiful

It's what it is ...
It's the renewable
It's what it is
It's the renewable Renewable Renewable Renewable Renewable

GUY (as SMYRNA)

Renewables
Are invisible
Unusual, unstoppable

Renewables oppose the self-attraction of matter and cause the expansion of the universe to accelerate. They defy gravity, defy friction — defy finitude itself

GUY (as SMYRNA)

Come with me and I will show
A world of ice and love and snow
Where only you and I will know
Of the rabbit in the hat at the magic show
There it is, there it is, there it is, renewables
There it is, there it is, there it is, renewables

Song ends. Jo and Johnny stop dancing.
